

KINGS COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CONFERENCE

ADDRESSING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN – COLLABORATIVE APPROACHES IN THE 21ST CENTURY

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL, 250 JORALEMON STREET, BROOKLYN, NY
OCTOBER 1, 2015 9 AM TO 2 PM

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

- Professor Elizabeth Schneider, Brooklyn Law School
- Mallika Dutt, Founder and President of Breakthrough
- Greg Schultz, Senior Adviser to Vice President Biden and co-architect of the It's On Us Campaign
- Chanel Porchia-Albert, Founder of Ancient Songs Doula Services
- Jimmie Briggs, Founder of the Man Up Campaign
- Rachel Tulchin, Deputy Director of the Clinton Foundation's No Ceilings: The Full Participation Project
- Phoebe Schreiner, U.S. Country Director for Breakthrough

CONFERENCE THEMES

- Collaborative prosecution
- Changing cultural norms
- The link between local prosecution and the global movement to end violence against women

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Domestic violence prosecutors
- Victim advocates and other community-based service providers
- Law enforcement professionals and judicial officers
- Social workers
- Policy makers
- Educators
- Clergy
- Foundations or individuals and/or organizations that fund domestic violence programs and initiatives

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR IF YOU WISH TO RECEIVE REGISTRATION MATERIALS,

Go to www.brooklynda.org/domestic-violence-conference/ or contact MaLora McCullough at mccullom@brooklynda.org or (718) 250-3156.