NOTIFICATION

February 3, 2016

Dear Community Partner in Justice:

Brooklyn District Attorney Ken Thompson, together with New York City Police Commissioner William J. Bratton, today announced that 18 alleged members of the violent Folk Nation: No Love City street gang based in Flatbush were charged in a 76-count indictment with conspiracy to commit murder, attempted murder, murder, assault, weapons possession and other charges for multiple shootings that occurred in Canarsie, Flatbush and DUMBO over the past two years, including one that left a 25-year-old man dead and another that left an innocent 60-year old grandmother paralyzed from the waist down. The defendants, who range in age from 18 to 27 years old, face various sentences as high as 25 years to life. This indictment makes clear that we will not allow violent street gangs to take over and terrorize our communities by going on hunting expeditions and roaming our streets shooting and killing people at will.

Sincerely,

Ken Thompson
